

Honorary Life Award

Background

PTA Honorary Life is the highest honor that a PTA can bestow; it is an especially significant way to honor worthy people in your school, community and state.

Criteria

- Honorees should be people who care about children, and have made their caring count by their devoted service to children and youth – a PTA leader (past or present), school administrator, an outstanding teacher or staff member, a senior citizen who serves as a volunteer in the school, a school board member, a school crossing guard, a police officer who works on drug education or other youth programs, a juvenile protection worker, a legislator who works for laws benefiting children or a newspaper editor who champions public education, etc.
- The honored person is someone who has given outstanding service to children; someone who has promoted children's well being by serving as an advocate for children in such areas as education, health, safety and legislation.
- The honoree need not be a member of a PTA, nor be known beyond his/her own area of service.
